About Shear Wigs

Shear Genius was started 12 years ago in Stone. Prior to that Karen studied at Stoke-on-Trent college for 3 years then went on to be trained for long hair work by Andrew Collinge, short funky bleached crops by Rita Rusk and Toni and Guy London for the latest fashions. Karen also worked in Switzerland for 6 months to gain experience of European styles. Anne studied and worked at John English hair design, she then studied at Stoke-on-Trent College to further her knowledge of hair.

Anne held a management role at a Hair Design Salon in Longton. Karen and Anne started Shear Wigs in 2012 in partnership. They both had close friends who had suffered from cancer with complete loss of hair and seeing their needs, this prompted them to start this venture.
